

Word Window Wow Workshop

Ideas Compiled by Jolene Johnson

Remember, many of these ideas can also be translated for use in scrapbooks too!

1. Word Window (Duh!)
2. Long word window punch (cut a strip of paper 3/8" wide and insert from bottom at desired length)
3. 2 or 3 varied tabs with words
4. Spinner Card
5. Off edge of focal image
6. Slot for a tag
7. Tie ribbon around word window punch out
8. Tab with brad on edge of card
9. Tab with brad on edge of focal image
10. As a buckle
11. To spell "HI"
12. To make a big buckle card
13. As a tag
14. Paper Pieced Candles
15. Hanger for a picture frame type focal image
16. As Tag Pulls
17. As a label (I've used mine to label my Stampin' Up! Ink pads)
18. As a word tab
19. 2 long word window punches on a square paper clip (one from each side)
20. Folded in half like ribbon flags
21. Window in tag pull card with words in window
22. 2 corner holders
23. Use multiple word window punch-outs in coordinating colors to make a mosaic background
24. facts or details down side of scrapbook page
25. Like a title plate on ribbon
26. A small shaker
27. Run wide twill tape between two punch outs
28. Tab sticking out from under focal image
29. Use two to hang a sign from
30. To hold a latch for a card (you can use two brads to secure it)
31. A slot on the side of a card to tie ribbon on
32. Side fold card attachments
33. Shortened tabs (just like long word window punches)
34. Flip up corner of card and secure with tab
35. Side tabs on a tuck card
36. Two on opposite sides of focal image to secure
37. Matted word window with word
38. Matted Word Window with Tab
39. Double Slider Card
40. Attach folded word window strip to coordinating paper strip
41. To make a flower
42. To make a punched out square
43. 2 varied length tabs with ribbon knots

44. Attach a piece of twine or thread to one edge of card and secure the other end to a word window tab
45. A Pop-Up Card
46. As a Picket fence
47. To secure a roll-back
48. Some Monograms will work with the word window punch too
49. Fold word window Punch-out in half and hang over tied ribbon strip. Secure with brad if desired
50. Frame (tie 4 punch outs together)
51. Add a word window punch out to each side of a tag or focal image and connect with ribbon, thread or fiber
52. Fold back  $\frac{3}{4}$ " to 1" on edge of card and use two word window punches to secure
53. Use it as a piece of hardware to secure a length of ribbon
54. use it on the empty side of a focal image when you didn't quite get it centered
55. Add stitching to give it more texture
56. Use one on each end of a strip of paper running the length of a card to add interest
57. Adhere a word window strip from side to side over a skinny focal image to "break it up"
58. Use a long Word Window Punchout to make a faux mini buckle strap
59. Use your punch to make a slot for a tuck card
